In Fall of 2021, New Student and Family Programs sent out a survey to our Families to gauge the involvement and voices of our community. As a part of this survey, we asked questions regarding their connection to the institution, their concerns for their students, and how they are receiving information about the ever-changing environment we are currently in.

Mason Families help make George Mason University an incredible place to be. Find out more ways to get involved in the Mason Family community and get connected to resources by visiting masonfamily.gmu.edu today! #MasonFamily
