PRESIDENT'S LETTER

(Portrait of President Gregory Washington)

Dear George Mason Families,

Welcome to a new academic year! It is my great privilege to extend warm greetings to you as valued members of the George Mason University community.

Your students have taken an exciting step toward independence and discovery, whether they are first-year students or on the cusp of graduation. But you remain an essential part of their journey—and an important part of ours at the largest and most diverse public research university in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

George Mason is proud to be a top 35 public university in The Wall Street Journal, and per that publication's rankings, we also lead Virginia in value and salaries.

So you've made a great investment! And here we believe that education is strongest when it is supported by a network of encouragement, connection, and shared purpose. Research shows that families play a vital role in this network.

Your involvement also offers meaningful benefits for you. Staying connected to your student's college experience, through this calendar and other ways throughout the academic year, provides a window into their growth and accomplishments. It allows you to celebrate milestones together, share in new discoveries, and build a deeper understanding of their evolving goals and passions.

Please consider our campuses your campuses! Whether attending family weekends, cultural events, athletic competitions, or performances, we want you to feel at home at George Mason. We encourage you to connect with fellow families and participate in the life of the university in ways that feel meaningful to you.

To us, you're all Patriots!

Gregory Washington
President, George Mason University

STAY CONNECTED AS A GEORGE MASON FAMILY

(A family of Patriots spend time together outside on campus.)

New Student and Family Programs (NSFP) recognizes the important role families play in their student's development and success at George Mason. NSFP serves as a liaison between the university and families and provides pathways for families to become active members of the George Mason community through programming and outreach.

Take advantage of the following resources and stay connected to George Mason throughout the year!

GET INVOLVED

Parent and Family Council

The Parent and Family Council (PAFC) provides an opportunity for parents and families to meet with university leadership, volunteer at events, and become actively engaged and informed members of the George Mason community.

COME BACK TO VISIT

Family Weekend

October 16–18, 2026

Join us for our annual university-wide celebration that takes place each fall. Events are designed to allow you to meet other families, become familiar with university resources, spend time with your student, and learn more about life as a George Mason Patriot!

STAY INFORMED

Website

If you have a question about George Mason and aren't sure where to start, visit masonfamily.gmu.edu and take advantage of a multitude of resources.

Mason Family Connection

Everything you need to make the most of your George Mason family experience is located within the Mason Family Connection. This platform provides a space for you to find your community within our larger family network, customize the content and frequency of updates, and much more. Join or update your profile at gmucampus.com.

JULY

(A portrait of two Patriot Leaders displaying their Patriot Pride by wearing big smiles and Mason Gear.)

Whether your student is living on or off campus, remind them to become familiar with their best routes to and from George Mason. For some students, being prepared for the first day of class could involve purchasing a parking permit or learning a bus or Metrorail route. Encourage your student to create an account at masoncommutes.com if they are interested in riding with others who are traveling at the same time and to the same destination. Information on parking and transportation options is available at transportation.gmu.edu.

Ask your student to register your contact information at alert.gmu.edu to receive emergency notifications from the university. All students are automatically enrolled in Mason Alert and are advised to add their cell phone number and additional emails to receive information in a timely manner.

Registration for Family Weekend is open! Visit the Mason Family Connection to register your family.

Remind your student to check their syllabi. Textbooks can be purchased online or in person at the bookstore on George Mason's Fairfax Campus.

Encourage your student to connect with their success coach to set goals and support their definition of success at George Mason. Students can find their success coach at coaching.gmu.edu/findyourcoach.

First-Year Connection events are designed to facilitate meaningful connections among first-year students, new transfer students, faculty, staff, and campus resources. These programs aim to enhance student engagement and support academic and personal growth throughout a student's first year at George Mason. Through a series of unique experiences on campus and in the Washington, D.C., area, students will have the opportunity to build lasting relationships, gain valuable insights on their George Mason journey, and fully integrate into the university community.
